

Maritime Education Summit Schedule

April 15-17, 2009

Wednesday

6:00-8:30pm

Social Reception in the Fantail - Hors d'oeuvres and Cash Bar

Thursday

7:00-8:00

Breakfast-Mess Deck: Full Breakfast with Omelet Station

8:00-8:15

All-Hands Presentation: Orientation and Admiral Gurnon's Greeting- Admiral's Hall

8:30-10:00

Maritime Academy Council Meeting – IMB Center or MERPAC Opening Session – Bay State Conference Center (Open Invitation to All Maritime Education Summit Attendees)

10:00-10:30

Coffee Break - Fantail and Outside Admiral's Hall

10:30-12:00

Maritime Workforce Panel- Admiral's Hall
Moderator: Dr. Mark Patrick
John Hafner, AMO; Patrick Kelly, Kirby Inland Marine, LP; Rich May, MMP; John Dragone, OSG

12:00-1:00

Lunch Break-Mess Deck: Sandwiches and Rollups; Beverages; Light Dessert

Harrington 106

Harrington 105

Harrington 203

Harrington 103

1:00-2:00

Concept of Manned Models for Maritime Training

CDR Robert Walsh, Director of the Center for Maritime Training, Massachusetts Maritime Academy

Maritime Labor: Shoreside and Seagoing Education Needs

Dr. Bani Ghosh, Associate Professor, International Maritime Business, Massachusetts Maritime Academy

Research Methods for the Humanities

Mr. David Allen, Humanities Department, State University of New York Maritime College

A Further Step at Tanker Training: How to Meet TOTS Requirements at MET Institutions

Captain Özgür Alemdağ, Captain Selcuk Nas, Captain Yusuf Zorba, Dokuz Eylul University, School of Maritime Business and Management, Turkey

2:15-3:15

Development of a Continuing Education Course in IGS/COW at Maine Maritime Academy

Mr. Peter Sarnacki, Associate Professor, Maine Maritime Academy

Global Economic Crisis and the Impact on Human Resources Strategies for Seafarers

Dr. Ender Asyali, Yusuf Zorba, O. Kamil Sag, Dr. A. Güldem Cerit, Dokuz Eylul University School of Maritime Business and Management, Tinaztepe Campus, Turkey

The Role of Chemistry in a Modern Maritime Education

Dr. Marie A. de Angelis, Associate Professor, State University of New York Maritime College

Environmental Compliance for Cruise Vessels

Mr. Rich Pruitt, Director, Environmental and Public Health Programs, Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd, and David Callahan, Marine Operations Support, Celebrity Cruises

3:15-3:45

Coffee Break - Fantail and Outside Admiral's Hall

3:45-4:45

A Brief Study in Bridge Team Resource Management

Captain Peter J. Hayes, J.D., Associate Professor, Marine Transportation Department, California Maritime Academy

What Now? The Skill Sets Necessary for the Next Generation of Maritime Industry Professionals

Mr. Christopher Clott, Associate Professor, International Business & Logistics, California Maritime Academy

The Role of General Education in an Undergraduate Maritime Curriculum

Dr. James Morgan, Professor, and Mr. David Palmer, Instructor, Humanities Department, Massachusetts Maritime Academy

Jones Act Trade into the Next Decade

Mr. John Dragone, Director, Labor Relations and Manning, OSG America

6:00- 6:30

Social Hour: Hors d'oeuvres and Cash Bar

6:30- 9:00

Dinner

Friday

7:00-8:00	Breakfast-Mess Deck: Full Breakfast with Omelet Station
8:15-9:15	Practice-Based Rules of the Road Instruction: Exploiting New Technologies Captain James J. Buckley, PhD, Interim, Associate Dean for Simulation, and Captain Samuel R. Pecota, California Maritime Academy	The Role of Piri Reis Maritime University in Recent MET Developments in Turkey Dr. Osman Kamil Sag, Dr. Reza Ziareti, Dr. Süleyman Özkaynak, Dr. Mahmut Celal Barla, Dr. Mufit Yildirim Alp, Piri Reis Maritime University, Turkey	Measuring the Maritime Curriculum: Collection Assessment at SUNY Maritime Mr. Joseph Williams, Collection Development and Acquisitions Librarian, State University of New York Maritime College Curricular Materials for Maritime Academies Dr. Joshua M. Smith, Associate Professor of Humanities, United States Merchant Marine Academy	IAMU, IMO Liaison Committee & Research Opportunities at Maritime Academies Captain Ernie Fink, State University of New York Maritime College
9:30-10:30	Role Playing in Engine Simulation – Deck./Engine Reality Interface OICEW Training Captain Bill Schmid, Marine Transportation Department and Mr. Scott Green, Engineering Technology Department, California Maritime Academy	Undergraduate Research Scholars Program at Texas A & M, Galveston Dr. Joan Mileski, Associate Professor and Dr. William McMullen, Professor, Texas A&M University at Galveston	Information Fluency Curriculum Maps for Maritime Disciplines Mr. Benjamin Bolin, Information Fluency Librarian, and Ms. Mindy Drake, Information Fluency Program Coordinator, California Maritime Academy Information Literacy Assessment and Student Learning Outcomes in the Maritime Curriculum: A Library Instruction Overview Mr. Shafeek Fazal, Head of Reference/Access Services & Assistant Director, State University of New York Maritime College	Maritime Security LCDR Daniel Deptula, Commanding Officer, United States Coast Guard, Maritime Safety and Security Team (MSST) Boston
10:30-11:00	Coffee Break - Fantail and Outside Admiral's Hall
11:00-12:00	Design of Shipboard Power Plant as Senior Project Dr. Hesham Shaalan, Associate Professor, Mr. Jose Femenia, Professor, Dr. David Palmer, Department Head, United States Merchant Marine Academy	Evacuation, Relocation and Recovery of Texas A&M University at Galveston in Response to Hurricane Ike Dr. Joan Mileski, Associate Professor and Dr. William McMullen, Professor, Texas A&M University at Galveston	Shipboard Violations: What can be Predicted Invites Intervention or The Shore Side of Disconnect Mr. Geoffrey W. Gill, Of Counsel, Countryman & McDaniel, International Transportation Law, Los Angeles, California	Piracy Mr. Douglas B. Stevenson, Director, Center for Seafarers' Rights, The Seamen's Church Institute of New York & New Jersey
12:00-1:00	Lunch Break-Mess Deck: Sandwiches and Rollups; Beverages; Light Dessert (Box Lunch Available Upon Advance Request)			